Introduction

The Asia-Pacific Early Mobilization Network is proud to host its second annual conference in Seoul, Korea. The conference features keynote speaker Dale Needham, MD, PhD, from Johns Hopkins University (Baltimore, USA) and experts from Asia and around the world. This conference is intended for clinicians and researchers who have an interest in developing and implementing early mobilization programs in the ICU. Conference topics will include the latest evidence for early ICU rehabilitation, essential multi-disciplinary components of early mobilization programs, changing culture in the intensive care unit, and clinical-decision-making to safely mobilize critically ill patients.

Who should attend

This activity is intended for physicians (critical care, pulmonologists, physiatrists, psychiatrists), physical therapists, psychologists, occupational therapists, rehabilitation assistants, nurses, physician assistants, pharmacists, and hospital administrators.
